"I knew that my child would likely leave with the same enthusiasm and passion for writing that I did."
—Parent of youth participant

WHO: Middle school youth entering 5th–8th grade in fall 2019 who LOVE WRITING!

WHAT: Writing camps that focus on writing and composition in many forms, from the beginning to the expert, taught by licensed teachers and members of the Minnesota Writing Project.

WHERE: Nicholson Hall, East Bank, University of Minnesota Twin Cities

WHEN: June 17–21 & 24–28
9am–12pm, 1pm–4pm, or 9am–4pm

COST: $200 per camp: Scholarships available

THE CAMPS

ARGUMENT ARTISTS! Practice the art of arguing well, with lively discussion, collaborative work, and challenging critical thinking.

FLASH FICTION: Craft a piece of original fiction in a step-by-step process that is sure to result in a wonderful piece of writing.

GRAPHIC NOVELS IN AMERICA: Calling graphic novelists of the future! Read graphic novels and create, design, and write your own!

INTERACTIVE FICTION: Whether it’s an epic adventure or something else, interactive fiction creates a story that readers can play like a game!

FIND MORE INFO & APPLY ONLINE
z.umn.edu/mwpyouthcamp

Contact MWP
612.625.6323
mwp@umn.edu