

The Lake Superior Writing Project aims to enrich K-12 through college literacy in the Arrowhead region of Minnesota and Wisconsin

The Lake Superior Writing Project Mini-Institute is sponsored by the Minnesota Writing Project and the University of Minnesota Duluth's College of Liberal Arts and Department of Education.

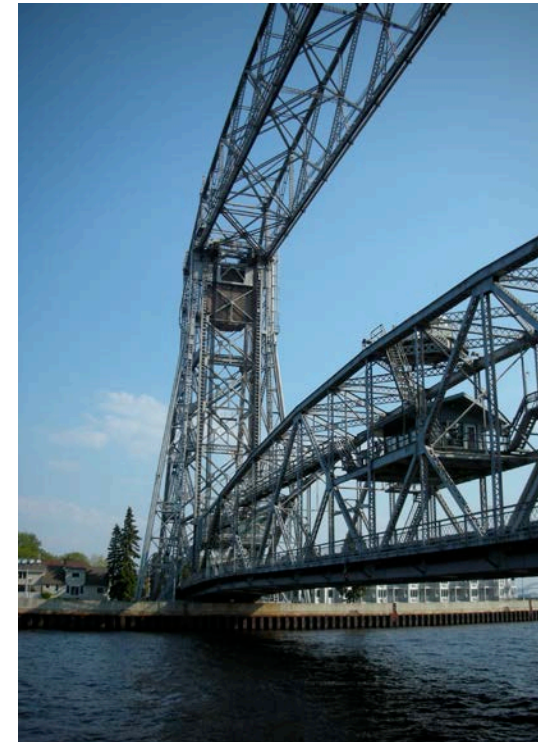

Lake Superior Writing Project Mini-Institute
University of Minnesota Duluth
% Jean Stevenson
150 EduE
412 Library Drive
Duluth, MN 55812

Lake Superior Writing Project Mini-Institute 2014

July 7-11, 2014

142 EduE

University of Minnesota Duluth
Duluth, Minnesota

“The Lake Superior Writing Project has been wonderful. It has made me think about myself as a writer and ways I can encourage all my students they can be writers as well.”

- Institute Participant

The Project

Since 2010, the Lake Superior Writing Project has provided teachers in the Duluth/Superior community and surrounding areas the opportunity to better their writing and explore new ways to introduce writing to their students.

Make Writing Yours

Participants experience self-discovery and rekindle creative outlets through writing during their time with the Lake Superior Writing Project.

Application Process

Interested teachers who would like to participate in the 2014 Lake Superior Writing Project Mini-Institute can apply by downloading the application at:

writing.umn.edu/mwp/LakeSuperior

Mail in the completed application or e-mail the application to: speralad@d.umn.edu

Deadline: May 17, 2014

Note: We are only able to consider applicants who are available, 9:00-3:00 each day during the entire week, July 7-11, 2014. CEUs available.

Key Offerings

During this institute participants:

- Create writing through prompts.
- Share teaching strategies.
- Explore different writing practices.
- Demonstrate a best practice in literacy.
- Become a part of a writing community.

Contact Us

Lake Superior Writing Project Mini-Institute

University of Minnesota Duluth
% Jean Stevenson
150 EduE
412 Library Drive
Duluth, MN 55812
(218) 726-6726
speralad@d.umn.edu

writing.umn.edu/mwp/LakeSuperior